Has your child:

- been drinking and going to the bathroom more frequently than usual?
- started wetting the bed again?

These could be symptoms of diabetes.

Children get diabetes too.

Get medical advice today.
Most children who develop diabetes do not have a family history of diabetes. Diabetes affects children of all ages.

If you think your child might have diabetes, see a doctor today.